2010 COACHES

Head Coach JEN LARSEN Sixth Season (53-39) • Virginia '96

The first and only lacrosse coach at Oregon, Jen Larsen enters her sixth season at the helm of the Ducks. Larsen has been steadily building the program since her hiring two years before the inaugural season in 2005. The growth showed in 2009 as the Ducks finished a program-best second in the MPSF standings tying with Cal and Denver. Oregon defeated powerhouse Denver for the first time in 2009. All that success despite the Ducks featuring 14 freshmen and 4 sophomores on the roster. The youth movement under Larsen was recognized, as Jana Drummond was named co-MPSF newcomer of the year.

Associate Head Coach ROBERT BRAY JR. Sixth Season • SUNY-Potsdam '91

In the summer of 2007, Robert Bray was promoted as the University of Oregon Women's Lacrosse program's associate head coach. As a coach dedicated to building the Oregon Lacrosse program, Bray works mainly with the team's offense, while overseeing recruiting and camps.

Assistant Coach JEN DERBY Second Season • Oregon '07

Jen (May) Derby, a former Oregon lacrosse star, returned to the program as the team's newest asst. coach in August of 2008. Derby was a member of Oregon's very first lacrosse team in 2005 and finished her career in the spring of 2008, helping guide the Ducks to a record 13 victories. Derby became the program's first All-American in 2008 after she was named to the Inside Lacrosse All-America Third Team.
